

PRETORIA CITY SDA CHURCH

COMMUNICATING CHRIST TO THE WORLD

Happy Sabbath, beloved members and friends of Pretoria City SDA Church. Today we reflect on the vital mission of the Communication Department within the life of the church. In a world filled with noise and competing messages, God calls us to be intentional messengers of hope, truth, and love. Communication in the church is more than announcements and media—it is ministry. It is the sacred responsibility of ensuring that the gospel is clearly seen, faithfully heard, and powerfully experienced, both within our congregation and beyond our walls.

As a church, we are reminded that every message we share, every post we create, and every story we tell should reflect Christ and draw others closer to Him. The Communication Department serves as a bridge—connecting people to God, to His Word, and to one another. May we all support and participate in this mission by becoming mindful communicators, using our voices and platforms to uplift, inform, and inspire. Let this Sabbath renew our commitment to be faithful ambassadors, sharing the everlasting gospel with clarity, creativity, and purpose.

STEWARDSHIP NUGGET

Talent can be abused. A talent that should have been used in the service of God is abused when it is dedicated to the service of the devil. Talent can also be abused when they lead their possessors to glorify themselves instead of God. Everyone of us should keep in mind that we don't possess anything that we did not receive from God. God gives a warning in the following verse:

,"for who makes use. ? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it , why do you boast as though you did not receive it? First Corinthisan4:7

Have you discovered your talent already? If so are you using that talent to do the best of your ability? Don't allow somebody to die in sin because you failed to use your talent.

God has not given talents to merely a chosen few, but to everyone He has committed some peculiar gift to be used in His service. Many to whom the Lord has given precious talents have refused to employ them for the advancement of the kingdom of God; nevertheless, they are under obligation to God for their use of His gifts. 3. GOD THE FATHER

GOD THE ETERNAL FATHER IS THE CREATOR, SOURCE, SUSTAINER, AND SOVEREIGN OF ALL CREATION. HE IS JUST AND HOLY, MERCIFUL AND GRACIOUS, SLOW TO ANGER, AND ABOUNDING IN STEADFAST LOVE AND FAITHFULNESS.

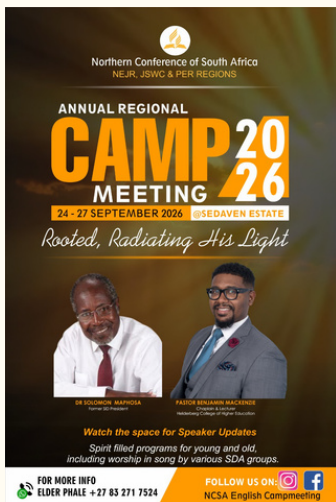

THE QUALITIES AND POWERS EXHIBITED IN THE SON AND THE HOLY SPIRIT ARE ALSO THOSE OF THE FATHER.
